GAELIC MEDIUM LEADERSHIP AWARD FOR TEACHERS AND EDUCATION PROFESSIONALS

The current context is one of rapid growth and development for the Gaelic sector.

This is a bespoke leadership programme, designed to meet the needs of emerging leaders in Gaelic Medium Education and Gaelic Learner Education.

We will explore specific leadership issues faced by the sector, such as responding to the Covid-19 reality, ASN needs, and the attainment challenge, all within the context of contemporary resource challenges.

You will gain an invaluable insight into your own leadership style and qualities, and a range of tools and techniques to use in your future career

THIS PROGRAMME WILL SUPPORT YOU TO:

- Reflect on your role, identify your key strengths and areas for growth and gain confidence in your abilities as a leader
- Develop your leadership in the context of challenges you may face, e.g responding to growing demand and opportunities for collaboration
- Gain insight into the skills required to be a successful leader in Gaelic • Benefit from the experiences of successful leaders in the sector
- Share your learning journey with your peers in GME or GLE from across Scotland
- Gain a nationally recognised qualification from the Institute of Leadership and Management(ILM)

LEARNERS

Teachers and educational professionals who would like to gain confidence in their ability to be effective, progressive, and self-aware leaders, potentially progressing their careers into head teacher or principal roles.

This programme will be delivered in Gaelic medium with learning materials provided in both Gaelic and English.
