DEVELOPING YOUR LEADERSHIP

DEVELOP THE KIND OF LEADER YOU ARE AND WANT TO BECOME

Effective leadership is crucial for organisations experiencing ongoing change and transition in a post-Covid world. Throughout the pandemic, managers often had to step up without the skills and confidence to lead in their best way.

This programme brings together staff and directors of third sector organisations in North Argyll to develop the key leadership skills necessary to be an effective and authentic manager.

Learners will gain practical skills and tools to support personal and team development, whilst creating a motivating and engaging work that builds individual and collective capacity.
