Success in developing a new social enterprise requires an effective and confident leader.

This ten-day leadership programme will give you the support and space to explore useful tools and strategies to help you to meet the challenges of growing a new social enterprise. Based on action learning, all learners will be encouraged to work together and learn from each other as you progress through different leadership topics. This can be a very powerful and transformational experience.

During this programme you will:

- ⭐ Explore the leadership challenges of growing a new social enterprise
- 💡 Develop confidence in yourself as a leader
- 🔧 Learn new tools and techniques to support you in developing your social enterprise
- 💬 Build a community of supportive peers within the sector
