DEVELOPING SUSTAINABILITY

LEADING YOUR ORGANISATION THROUGH A PERIOD OF RAPID CHANGE

Sustainability is a key concern for third sector organisations and social enterprises. Numerous challenges face the sector, both within their own structure and how they interact in the wider environment. Sustainability is also about how to expand, scale and develop what organisations are doing.

This programme explores these themes, looking at what is already working, how to sustain this and identifying what needs to change and how to make this happen.

WHO IS IT FOR?

This is a six-day programme for Social Enterprises and Not For Profit organisations to examine and develop their organisational and financial sustainability.

WHAT WILL YOU GET OUT OF THE PROGRAMME?

IDEAS FOR INNOVATIVE CHANGES TO BUILD SUSTAINABILITY

EXPLORING NEW PARTNERSHIPS AND NETWORKS

APPLY AN ENTERPRISING MIND-SET TO ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

REVIEW NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR INCOME GENERATION

Qualification - Developing Sustainability

Participants have the opportunity to complete a 10 credit SCQF level 9 qualification in Developing Sustainability, accredited by Glasgow Caledonian University, at an additional cost of £150.
